

CORKIN GALLERY

Miles Gertler

Miles Gertler is an architectural based artist, a co-founder of Toronto's artist run collective Studio 93H. His architectural practice explores architecture's relationship with the material business of death in the city and is in design development of its first built project in Ontario.