

CORKIN GALLERY

Andrés Marroquín

Andrés Marroquín was born in Peru and now resides in Germany. He studied Science of Communication at the “Universidad de Lima” (2000-2003). In 2005 he started his photography studies at the FAS, Fotografie am Schiffbauerdamm in Berlin and he continued his career at the Ostkreuzschule für Fotografie und Gestaltung where he graduated in 2009. Andrés’ work has been invited to numerous group and solo exhibitions around the world, including the 06. Berlin Kunstsalon, Italian Photofestival of Savignano, F-Stop Festival in Leipzig, Darmstädter Tage der Fotografie and Fotosommer Stuttgart 2010, Arroniz Contemporaneo in Mexico, Kunst.Licht Gallery in Shanghai, 980 Galeria in Colombia and Galleria Contemporaneo in Venice. In 2012 he co-funded “Meier und Müller”, a publishing project for Artists Books that specialize on books that reflect the artists’ vision, both in quality and design. In 2013 he started teaching at the Centro de la Imagen in Lima, Peru.